

DEBORAH SISTERHOOD

OF TEMPLE ANSHE SHOLOM

WOMEN OF REFORM JUDAISM stronger together

The Deborah Sisterhood is 165 years young and was the first group of Jewish women organized for charitable purposes in Canada. We are proudly affiliated with the Women of Reform Judaism. Our mission is to enhance and support all aspects of Temple life - socially, financially, and spiritually. We also support charitable endeavours in our greater community. Membership in Sisterhood is open to all!

Our strength is our dedicated volunteers. So many of Sisterhood's activities are made possible because you have decided what we do is important to us, our children, and our grandchildren. With your support and involvement the quality of Temple life will be assured. Some of our activities include:

- Flower Fund
- Financial assistance to send children to camp
- Provide High Holiday flowers for the bimah
- Hosted annual Chanukah Dinners
- Judaica Shop
- Financial assistance to Temple's Religious School
- Fundraising for Temple Special Projects
- Member Events

2016 / 2017 EVENTS

Thursday, November 24, 2016

Cocktails & Canvas

Let out your inner artist! Join us for an evening of painting, wine, and cheese. The painting you will be creating at this event will be "Cherry Blossoms" led by Paula Baruch.

Tuesday, January 24, 2017

Chocolate Tales

This evening includes a brief history of chocolate and bean-to-bar description, ganache tasting, chocolate tempering and molding, Truffle making, Lava Cake decorating, and a box of chocolate to take home.

Thursday, March 30, 2017

Movie Night

Join us for a movie and theatre treats. Exact movie to be determined – suggestions welcome!

Sunday, May 7, 2017

Health & Wellness

This gentle stretching class will help to balance and connect the mind, body, and soul. Some of the benefits will be increased circulation, more energy, greater flexibility, better balance, and lower stress. Led by Nicole Jean, Registered Massage Therapist and Personal Trainer.
